

FBI Behavioral Analysis Unit

Supervisory Special Agent Bradley Hentschel

SSA Brad Hentschel has been assigned to the FBI's Behavioral Analysis Unit since 2019. In this role, he provides case consultation on both FBI and non-FBI cases as well as deployment to mass casualty events for post-attack analysis.

Prior to BAU, Brad was assigned to FBI field offices in Anchorage, Alaska, and Jackson, Mississippi. His investigative experience includes counterterrorism and civil rights, including hate crimes and human trafficking. In addition to casework, Brad served for eight years on FBI SWAT teams in Alaska and Mississippi and was certified as an ALERRT instructor, firearms instructor, and defensive tactics instructor. He is the recipient of the FBI Medal of Excellence, Top Cop, and the EOUSA Director's Award.

Brad holds bachelor's degrees in English and Spanish from Spring Hill College and a master's degree in Latin American Studies from Tulane University.
