Lynn Fitch

A Message from Mississippi Attorney General Lynn Fitch

We are only five weeks away from the Inaugural Mississippi Women's Summit on Monday, August 19 at the Oxford Conference Center. I am excited to announce the first of our three featured speakers: Independent Women's Voice Ambassador and former University of Pennsylvania swimmer, Paula Scanlan!

Paula has a compelling experience to share as a teammate of Lia Thomas and the efforts of her college's administration and student body to silence her and suppress her right to free speech after speaking out about the injustice of forcing females to compete against a man. Today, Paula has put her engineering career on hold to be an advocate for women and girls sex-based rights across the United States. Join us to hear Paula share her story, you will not want to miss this!

If you have not yet reserved your space at this free event, please click here now to do so! In addition to several panels of women leaders from all over Mississippi who will share their experiences as women running businesses and charitable organizations or as women in public service, law enforcement, and the military, we will also feature a vendor area of women-owned businesses from across Mississippi. Vendor spaces are free to qualifying businesses, and there are spaces left, so if you know a woman-owned Mississippi business, please contact us now!

We do have a room block set aside at the Tru by Hilton in Oxford, with a special price of $189 per night. Please click here to make your reservation or call 662-380-5888 and ask for the 2024 Women's Summit room block (mini code WMN).

Stay tuned to this newsletter and visit our special Summit website for more announcements about speakers, exciting door prizes, and participating vendors. Don't forget to share this newsletter with your friends and family. I will see you at the Inaugural Mississippi Women's Summit on August 19 in Oxford!

May God Bless You,
